PRESS RELEASE

23rd November 2010, New Delhi

The UPA II Is Under Deep Neck Corruption

Ever since the UPA II Came into power, stories of scandals are coming one after another. The IPL controversy, which forced Mr. Shashi Tharoor, the MoS of External Affairs to resign, the scam of Defence equipment purchase from Israel, the huge scandal of Commonwealth Games, the Adarsh Flat Scandal of Defence Ministry and so on. The latest in the series is the 2G Spectrum Scandals, the biggest corruption ever India heard about.

The issue of 2G Spectrum corruption will not end with the resignation of Mr. A. Raja, the Telecommunication Minister. It is a fact that the Spectrum corruption is not a handy work of Mr. Raja and some officers of DoT. The latest revelations and the affidavit submitted by the DoT in the Supreme Court amply proves that the highest executive office of the country i.e; the office of the Prime Minister is also involved in this huge scandal. It is quite natural that if Dr. Manmohan Singh's office is also involved in the scam means the 10 Janpath, the residence of Smt. Sonia Gandhi and the AICC office also played very crucial role in the 2G Spectrum scandal.

Now Smt. Sonia Gandhi is confessing that the economic growth due to new economic policies brought 'growth' as well as corruption and greed. It is now evident that the crony capitalism developed in our country under the pretext of liberalisation of Indian economy broadly institutionalized the corruption at all levels. Earlier the volume of corruption was minimal and understandable. But now the volumes are rising into lakhs and lakhs crores of Rupees. The money involved in the 2G spectrum scandal is almost one third of the total fiscal deficit of the last general budget of the country. More over this money is more than double to meet the subsidy requirements for providing cheap food grains to all Indian families. Therefore it is not mere corruption it is loot.

The whole nation is astonishing after seeing the silence of the head of the Cabinet, the Prime Minister on this biggest scandal of India ever seen. The whole opposition and some of the ruling parties are also demanding the government to constitute a JPC to enquire about the entire gamut of this scandal. But the government's reluctance to do the same is mysterious. The All India Forward Bloc will organize Nation-wide mass movement to expose the UPA II government and will campaign for good governance free from corruption.
